IS YOUR PAL CARD ABOUT TO EXPIRE?

If so, you don't need to retake the full MEWP operator course to renew it!

Existing PAL Card holders can choose the shorter, Operator Renewal Course, or the PAL+ Advanced Operator Course to renew and upskill at the same time.

Can these courses be taken as eLearning?

Yes, you can take the theory module and test as eLearning for both courses prior to attending a training centre where you will take your practical module. (Facial recognition technology is used during eLearning to confirm your identity.) Alternatively, you can take the theory module and test in a classroom, led by an instructor, at a training centre.

Can these courses be take using a VR Sim?

Yes, you can take the practical module and test for both courses using a virtual reality MEWP simulator (VR sim), supervised by an instructor at a participating training centre, or, by prior arrangement, at your worksite.

N.B. Only courses for machine types 3a and 3b can be taken using a VR sim; courses for machine types 1a and 1b must be taken on a real machine at a training centre.

What are the pre-requisites for this course?

A valid PAL Card and a minimal amount of practical experience is required - please contact your nearest IPAF training centre to find out more.

A valid PAL Card or operator licence - please contact your nearest IPAF training centre to find out more.

Which categories of MEWP does this course cover?

1a 3a 3b 1b

3a+ 3b+ 1b+

How long is the course?

The duration is between half a day and a day, depending on format chosen. The course is designed to build upon candidates' existing knowledge. By comparison, the regular 'entry-level' MEWP Operator Course takes between one and three days, depending on the candidate's experience and complexity of the machine training is required for.

Usually one day – depending on format taken.

What qualification do I gain?

Your PAL Card – now issued digitally as ePAL (see overleaf), will be renewed for five years.*

**Subject to regional variation.*

Your PAL Card – now issued digitally as ePAL(see overleaf), will have the plus sign (+) added for each relevant category.

Please see www.ipaf.org/palplus for more information.

How much does it cost?

Each training centre sets its own prices. Please contact your local training centre for more details.

If I have a PAL Card can I use the IPAF logo?

PAL Card holders can use the 'operator tick logo' which signifies operators hold a PAL Card and have completed IPAF-approved training. Download at www.ipaf.org/logos. Please search for 'IPAF operator tick logo'. (Only IPAF members can use the 'IPAF Member' logo.)

N.B. All references to 'instructors' and 'training centres' denote IPAF-approved instructors and IPAF-approved training centres. Visit www.ipaf.org/training to use our training centre locator.
